The balls that King Buckwheat dropped are too numerous to completely list, but the previous list kind of gives you an idea of his incompetence.

We should also note that we can't afford his health care affordability, we can barely eek-by in his economy, fill our gas tanks with his energy policies, find a job under his jobs program, and we are still continually trying to find some trace of truthful openness with his most transparent government to ever exist.

Although he blames President GWB for every egregious policy from those that bankrupted companies and purged our retirement accounts to the astronomically high unemployment rates; but few Americans have forgotten the fact that the Democrats controlled both Houses of Congress and the purse-strings during W's last two-years in office.

We also vividly remember one of the first indicators that Buckwheat was in over his head shortly after he took office in 2009; he couldn't make a decision on whether or not to send a surge of troops to Afghanistan?

King Buckwheat's schizophrenic words are also a bit unnerving. He'll brag about killing US citizens with drones, but wants constitutional rights provided to those terrorists residing in the off-shore Guantanamo Bay Detention Camp. It's a lot like the due process exuded upon some citizens while the IRS officials have exponentially disregarded due process for other citizens.

1st valid reason:

Going To war without congressional approval.

2nd valid reason:

Promoting his dictatorship, and the decline of America, and our sovereignty.

3rd valid reason:

Intentionally causing the decline of the dollar.

4th valid reason to impeach Obama:

He gave Brazil 2 billion dollars to drill for oil that is twice as deep as the Deep Water Horizon well, in the same turn putting 100,000 people out of work in the gulf with an unconstitutional moratorium...

5th Valid Reason:

Making an unconstitutional appointment while congress was in session.

6th reason: Leaving our Solders and Ambassador unprotected and left to die in Benghazi.

Enough of this nonsense! Mr. Obama is way too incompetent to hold the extremely important Office of the President of the United States of America and he has demonstrated he is obviously functioning at least a dozen levels above his competency.

The media bashed Sarah Palin and had suggested to the voters that she wasn't competent enough to be their Vice-President. There was an all-out war on women in 2008. Seriously; the media led the voters to believe that Joe Biden was somehow more competent to hold the Office!??

But, that does not let Republicans off the hook for 2014 either. Those that voted to keep Boehner as Speaker need to be replaced as well.

THANK YOU CJ! Good-bye for now

Every so often we have people waltz into our lives that have a profound impact on us and on those who get to know them; Carole "CJ" Williams was one of those people. She dedicated more than a decade of her final years to uncovering the truth and informing those willing to learn about what she had gleaned through her exhaustive research.

Affectionately known simply as CJ, she researched, wrote, and spoke at events, rallies and on the air. Her hard raspy voice was strong and provided her with a distinguishing characteristic. There was no doubt where she stood on an issue and provided her audience with clear and concise warnings.

She was a vicious watchdog and her stature was reminiscent of the Marine Corps bulldog. CJ was not only capable of a painful bite, but when she latched-on there was no letting-go.

CJ had no respect for individuals who were far more interested in padding their own self-esteem, wallets, or resumes than doing what's right. She especially exhibited a loathing for politicians who were willing to bend-over to receive the dictates of fictitious movements like global warming, help promote other global agendas, and put forth their own impositions upon the citizens of the nation, which she devoutly loved and diligently served.

CAROLE
"CJ"
WILLIAMS

CJ belonged to sportsmen organizations and along with her husband Mike, they shared an appreciation of the great outdoors. She battled sporting organizations inclined to adopt those laws, rules, regulations, and policies, which were by design conflicting with outdoor freedoms.

CJ wrote for womenhunters.com, conservative organizations like newswithview.com, and for the Yooper Spectator, Michigan's News and Views, and the Yooper Spectator and of course our own Yooper Scooper/National Defender.

CJ considered herself a Conspiracy Theory Junky in one posting on Michigan's News and Views. But those who knew her, she wasn't a paranoid consumer of tin-hat theories. She never entered the fray until all aspects were verified.

[Links below—Visit while they're still there.]

She wrote: Worse, I've no remorse over the fact that my fingers have typed the truth of many conspiracies during the past several years, verifying that my theories and some others' theories, which I shared with readers of my newspaper column, have proved to be reality, not merely theory.

Conspiracy theorists have been around for quite some time. It's only of late - with the phenomenal growth of the TEA Party movement - that the label has received such thundering derision, particularly from the gaggle of far left-leaning, Mao-hugging 'Progressives', who appear to have taken over the Democratic Party at all levels.

I'm sure we'll hear her in the murmur of a brook and within the sounds of a cascading waterfall. She's an icon of love, loyalty, patriotism, truth, and passion with a hint of ferociousness.

Every now-and-again, as you walk through the woods and enjoy the aroma of the outdoors as the wind whiffs through the leaves or gently over the glistening white snow, think of CJ and mention her name out loud for God to hear.

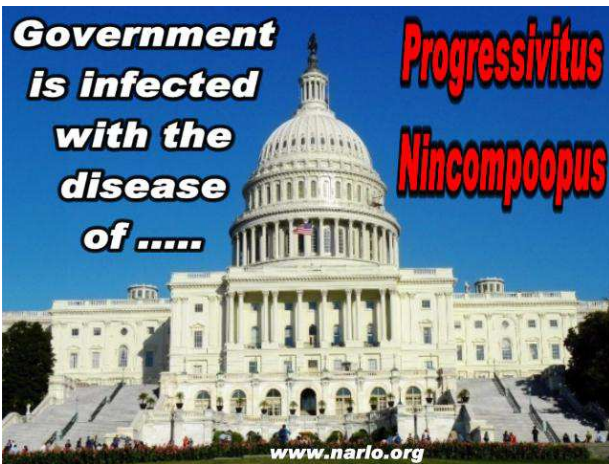

God had truly blessed us with knowing Thee—Rest in Peace good friend and colleague. Please continue to help us find truth in its purest form; Until then . . .

NATIONAL DEFENDER

The National Defender is a publication of the U. P. Patriots. We are very partisan group of concerned citizens: partisan (n.) A fervent, sometimes militant supporter or proponent of a party, cause, faction, person, or idea. Our fervent stance embraces the idea of Creationism, the constant support of the US Constitution, the vocal advocacy of both human and property rights and a commitment to holding an elected or appointed office wholly accountable to those who pay their wages and provide funding for their benefits.

Our goal is to provide our readers with at least one alternative source of news and opinions that is not limited to butt-kissing and ankle-grabbing of most news and opinion providers. We will try to collect revealing and credible news stories from any source to help keep the citizens highly informed. It's only an informed public that is a vigilant public—

We hold these values in order to ensure a viable and accountable governmental system. We hold all persons of truth harmless.

"There is no crueller tyranny than that which is perpetuated under the shield of law and in the name of justice."

Charles de Montesquieu, French Political Thinker, 1689 - 1755)

For the most part, we try to keep our focus on the plight of rural America, but the disease that eats away at rural America has also infected every other part of America. What has infected every other part of America is the pus of tyrannical socialism and the scourge of radical environmentalism.

So why are you acting so surprised and shocked at the scandals that permeate the culture in America's government, at every level, but more particularly at the federal level? After all, government scandals aren't new. But then what did you expect after 100 plus years of Progressive indoctrination that has infected every one of America's institutions with the fetid disease of socialism, a disease that always kills the political body it inhabits. Almost every politician, bureaucrat, or government employee living today is the product of this indoctrination.

Virtually every kid that went to school in our public propaganda system for the last 70 years has received a large dose of collectivism, multiculturalism, socialism, social justice, radical environmentalism, political correctness, the unimportance of American freedom and sovereignty, a social bill of rights and the virtues of being a good world citizen.

The foundation of America, as manifested in self-reliance, independence, personal responsibility and individual freedom, has been bred out of the last three to four generations and those kids and adults now occupy places in business and in government, or are a bunch of derelicts in the "Occupy Wall Street" unruly scum.

Government agencies, created solely for the purpose to aggressively promote social issues, have exploded across the political landscape for the last 80 years and so has the cost to "feed" this insatiable beast. As the beast grew, it sucked up the dollars needed to fund the rest of government. It sucks trillions of dollars out of the economy, dollars that are needed to make the economy and jobs grow. Oh, you say you don't have a job! Tough! Blame those that took your job away the Progressives that are deeply embedded at every level of government and the pervasive mindset in millions of Americans that carry the disease!

Who is running the government anyway? It is the same people that were indoctrinated and brainwashed in our public school and college education systems, all the while learning the values of social justice and radical environmentalism that were spawned in the United Nations. Who is drafting the legislation and the bureaucratic rules that gush out of government like the water racing through a broken dam? Who decided in the IRS that it was OK to target conservative groups?

Perhaps it is because many Progressives believe that Conservatism is the cure for the disease known as Progressivitus nincompoopus and Progressives don't want to be cured? It very well could have been a Progressive brainwashed low-level IRS employee who thought he or she would exercise the might and power of the great government over the people, especially those people with whom he or she doesn't agree.

Of course, it is just a coincidence that all this power was being exercised over non-Progressive groups just before a presidential election. Naw! It couldn't be that they wanted to influence the outcome of the election now could it?

Who at the U. S. Department of Justice, over which the Attorney General Eric Holder doesn't know what is going on, (i.e. Fast and Furious) decided to unconstitutionally exercise the extreme power of government by issuing subpoena's for over 20 telephone lines at the Associated Press, along with a whole bunch of e-mail accounts. They did it IN THE INTEREST OF NATIONAL SECURITY, or so they say? Of course, there was no political component in their action.

They are honest and true blue..... Aren't they? Now, it could have been a low level ideologue at the Department of Justice, but it's a safe bet that it was someone much higher, and probably the Deputy Attorney General; but little old Eric's hands are clean. He didn't do it..... Or did he?

To believe that the Benghazi terrorist attack on September 11, 2012, that murdered our Ambassador and three other Americans, was covered up by Obama or his administration for political reasons just before the election, is obviously a right wing and a racist plot to demonize the president, put him on the defensive and stop him from realizing his "noble" Progressive socialist agenda.

What other reason could there be? We all know the he is as pure as the driven snow and smart as a fox isn't he? Certainly the facts that have come out about the Benghazi "affair" by testimony at congressional hearings must be wrong, or doctored by the Republicans whose eyes gleam with self-righteous indignation and the chance to "get" the President, or better yet, Hillary.

The Progressives are now in full damage control mode and the press is their willing accomplice. Did you happen to see Meet the Press last Sunday? There were easy questions for the liberal and hard questions for the conservative. Naw! There is no liberal bias in the news media is there?

In our last article we chronicled the billions in illegal payoffs to minority farmers for alleged racial discrimination at the U. S. Department of Agriculture where racial discrimination was minimal at best. We also briefly mentioned the payoff to illegal aliens in billions of your tax dollars for kids that don't live in America.

The IRS knows it is going on and sanctions it. After all, it fits the Progressive agenda to buy more future votes from illegal aliens when they get amnesty.

These are just two government programs that illegally waste billions upon billions of our tax dollars. Does anyone's head roll? Does anyone get fired? Does anyone go to jail? Hell no!

They just get promoted because government is infected with the pus of tyrannical socialism and that pus oozes out of the fetid cesspool that we call government. That pus eats away at our freedom like an acid eats metal, but those in power that secrete the acid, are immune to its affects.

How many more of these programs are there? Hundreds, if not thousands, at all levels of government and productive Americans are footing the bill.

This begs the question, how do you drain the pus out of a body that is so diseased? Is there a vaccine that will cure it? How do you purge the pus of Progressivism out of every American institution and out of the mindset of a large percentage of the American population, a population that is now determining the suicide direction that America is headed?

The only reason that Progressivism has worked so well in America is that it exploits human weakness and government is the exploiter in chief.....for votes. If America fails and it is on life support now, the weakness of the majority of the American people will be directly responsible for its demise. A strong country becomes strong on the wings of adversity.

A weak country dies when the government clips those wings and induces the people with promises of "free stuff" to become dependent on government.

If America is to be saved from its self it will only be by the Herculean and courageous efforts of those Americans who have not been infected with the killer disease of Progressivism. But they had better come up with a cure pretty damn quick because time is not on their side and Gangrene is beginning to take hold in America's limbs. Millions of free Americans had better get in the trenches or watch their country be consumed by the flames of national collapse, where freedom and liberty are destroyed in the deep canyons of misery, the place where pure evil resides.

In this article we have given government a failing grade and decried their lapses of duty to serve the people honorably. However, in contrast, that part of government that has not failed us is our brave military men and women, active, retired, or deceased, who have, for over 200 years, laid down their lives for we civilians so that we would be free. Not only is it appropriate on Memorial day, and every day, that we honor their sacrifice, their bravery and their heroism, but we should not let them down by we civilians allowing our government to slip into the jaws of corruption, negligence, debauchery and tyranny. If Americans fail in that duty, for what then would our brave men and women be fighting? Certainly not freedom!

John Adams in a speech to the military in 1798 warned his fellow countrymen stating, "We have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion . . . Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." John Adams is a signer of the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and our second President.

IMPEACH OBAMA, BIDEN, AND ENTIRE ADMINISTRATION

[This is just the tip of the iceberg...

Mr. Obama has repaid all his campaign contributors and supporters tenfold; clear acts of bribery, which has cost the taxpayers billions in wasted investment money.

Mr. Obama provided Brazil billions of taxpayers' dollars to fund oil drilling while the Obama Administration battles against the Keystone Pipeline.

There is no doubt in any patriot's mind that Mr. Obama and his supporters not only have an innately keen hatred from the United States of America, her people, and what she had stood for on the world stage, but they also resent the very idea of someone earning more than they do. They want America to be a reflection of Ethiopia; the people are impoverished while those in political positions oversee their serfs.

First goal: Eliminate competition by winning the hearts and souls of those who can be easily solicited, controlled, and manipulated; the young, the old, and the other very stupid people.

Second goal: Disarm those considered to be uncontrollable; governing does not facilitate rule.

Third goal: Eliminate those who were easily controlled; they no longer serve any purpose.

Fourth goal: Obtain a sustained support of those that cannot be controlled by outside influences and are dedicated to maintaining the new order.
